

Worries? Problems? Complaints?

People you can talk to:

- The Head teacher - Mrs Jackson
- Deputy Headteacher, Academic - Mrs Hamilton
- Assistant Headteacher, Pastoral and DSL - Miss Gosai
- Head of Prep School – Mr Trythall
- Your Tutor
- Your Head of Year
- Boarding House Parents
- School nurse and the doctors who visit the medical centre
- Any member of staff of your choice
and of course...
- Your own parents, guardians or family

You may phone:

- Confidential support for young people, Devon Police: call or text 116 000
- Childline – FREE on 0800 1111
- Independent Schools Inspectorate (ISI) on 02076 000100
- Rev Andrew Vidamour (Independent Listener) on 01237 478453
- The Children’s Commissioner, Dame Rachel de Souza on 0800 528 0731

REMEMBER:

- There are people at Kingsley School who are willing and ready to listen to you.
- There are independent people outside school who can help you.
- You can raise your concern anonymously through Whisper (see posters).
- If you want to make a formal complaint, you have the right to do so.
- You can have a friend or teacher with you. You will not be “in trouble” for making a complaint.
- You do not need to tell staff or anyone else that you are complaining about them.